

FOR YOUTH DEVELOPMENT®
FOR HEALTHY LIVING
FOR SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

WHERE FAFU CHILDREN LIVE

About Kibera

- Kibera is the largest urban slum in Africa and one of the largest in the world
- Approximately, one million residents live in Kibera which is 630 acres or the size of Central Park
- More than 100,000 orphaned children live in Kibera
- Kibera is not recognized as a formal settlement by the Kenyan Government; therefore, there are no public services available, including schools
- Main streets have busy local commerce
- Roadways/alleys are filled with garbage and human waste
- Kibera has a 50% unemployment rate, where day labor is the most common job
- The average house for four people in Kibera is about 28 square feet and is made out of mud, cardboard, and tin, with no running water or bathroom
- Homes are one room huts divided by a curtain with basic furniture
- Rain overflows from alleys into their homes

Outside Facing The Future

Inside Facing The Future